

91 pts Aiken 2012 Pinot Noir (Sonoma Mountain)

Waxy cherry and pomegranate invite the senses before a taste of dried cranberry wafts in, layering itself on top of velvety, silky tannins. Juicy and well-composed, it hails from an appellation not known for the variety. In the hands of this producer, also a fine craftsman of Cabernet, this wine simply sings.

— V.B. Price $55 (6/1/2015)